Ikebana Workshop Sat. Aug. 20 – by Valeria Brinkers.

Valeria is a professor of the Ikebana Sangetsu School and former President of the Ikebana International Los Angeles. She received her Jyo-Kyoju title in 1993 from the Headquarters of the Sangetsu School in Japan. She continued to progress with her studies by earning the second level certificate as an assistant professor in 2010, and awarded the title of full professor in 2017.

Ikebana is the centuries old Japanese art of arranging flowers. The practice, which roughly translates to “making flowers come alive,” uses carefully selected blossoms, greenery and other flora to convey a specific feeling or emotion to an observer. Ikebana aims to bring out the inner qualities of flowers and other live materials.
